

“We invite you to walk with us in a movement of the Australian people”

The Uluru Statement from the Heart, 26 May 2017

First Nations leadership

The Traditional Owners and First Nations-led bodies of the region standwithfirstnations.com.au/leadership

Before your first meeting

What First Nations authors ask of you standwithfirstnations.com.au/first-meeting standwithfirstnations.com.au

Groups to join, events to attend, and tasks to take up

Join a group

Nine national bodies and twenty groups to consider across South East Queensland

First Nations Events

This month’s events, from the First Nations Community Calendar

Get involved

Tasks and roles that suit the skills, time, or resources you can use to stand with First Nations communities

Countries of the First Nations of South East Queensland

Sovereignty never ceded

RESEARCH, DESIGN & PRODUCTION
Philippe Foubert

philippefoubert.com

Stand With First Nations

The Uluru Statement invited you “to walk with us”

Options to act in response

What can First Nations people count on you to do?

First Nations Events

Current events, and annual dates

26 January
Invasion Day

26 May
National Sorry Day

27 May to 3 June
National Reconciliation Week

First full week of July
NAIDOC Week

14 October
Anniversary of the Voice referendum standwithfirstnations.com.au/events

Get involved

Five ways to do your part, and tasks that fit the time you have

- Two hours a month
- A skill
- Money
- A venue, a vehicle, or a kitchen
- Your voice, among the people who know you standwithfirstnations.com.au/involved

Join a group

National bodies, and twenty groups in South East Queensland, with what each does and the way to join

Brisbane

Logan and Moreton Bay

The Sunshine Coast and Noosa

Toowoomba

Nine national bodies

standwithfirstnations.com.au/join